FOREWORD

"As I walked through the wilderness of the world, I lighted on a certain place", quoth John Bunyan. And there he met with all manner of damsels engaged in diverse pursuits both grave and gay the record of which is chronicled for all who tread herein the paths of learning or pursue their pilgrim's progress through the world.

The Sweet Briar Student Government grew out of an earnest desire on the part of the students to assume individual and community responsibility for their own conduct in matters not strictly academic. Dignity and honor pertain to student government, and it is a means whereby the highest ideal of government depends upon the high standard of honor, personal and collective, of the entire student body, and the co-operation of every member, who should feel it her individual responsibility to raise the standard and ennoble the life of the community in which she takes her place.

The Y. W. C. A. at Sweet Briar is an organization formed for the purpose of social service. On the campus it takes charge of classes, chapel, and entertainment for the waitresses, holds chapel every Wednesday evening for the student body. Under its auspices excellent speakers are invited to the college, and interesting group discussions follow. At the beginning of the year the Y. W. C. A. welcomes the new girls and helps them to adjust themselves to college life. Its chief interest off campus is a small church and school for the "half-breeds," known as the Mission, where the Sweet Briar students are active in many ways.

The International Relations Club of Sweet Briar College was organized in 1921 under the leadership of Dr. McDougall. Since then the club has grown both in scope and influence. The aim of the present organization is to stimulate and encourage the habit of serious and intelligent thought along international lines in the hope that it may become a life habit. The work is, in the main, in the hands of the student members, but the faculty have taken a decided interest in the welfare of the club, realizing the need there is for such an organization. An attempt has been made to keep it serious, non-partisan, and free from all propaganda. It is under the supervision of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Organized early in the college's history from a nucleus of a small group of girls who went through the dormitories singing Christmas carols the night before Christmas vacation, the Glee Club has grown in proportion to the college itself. The carol-singing group has become a club of fifty-four members whose aim it is to enjoy as well as to perform for the pleasure of the community some of the best music, and whose policy it is to present achievements in concerts both formal and informal at various times during the college year. Because the Glee Club was formed simply and solely through the love of singing of its originators, the Club has always been especially for those who love to sing and who want to learn to love singing. And it still sings Christmas carols!

One of the outstanding interests among the students of Sweet Briar is that shown in music. Although the number of those who play instruments is comparatively few there has been an organization since 1926 in which those who are interested can enjoy ensemble work. This year the group furnished the music in the play "A Thousand Years Ago" and took part in the Christmas program of music. There was also an informal evening of instrumental music in which trios, and quartets formed by members of the ensemble took part.

THE IMPRINT of PRIDE

Bids for patronage on a basis of price alone get small response from people who know the true worth of good quality in PRINTING. They prefer to pay the slight difference in the cost of good printing over mediocre printing because of the vastly superior RESULTS obtained and RESULTS, of course, are paramount.

BELL MADE ANNUALS are produced by skilled craftsmen to meet the most exacting requirements. But, measured by the standards of real service and satisfaction, they are, after all, the least expensive.
